TEXT:

...the company has also had trouble innovating. Smith's last grand project, Federal's ZapMail electronic document - transmission service, was an uncharacteristic failure. Federal was attempting to operate its own fax network. But poor transmission quality, the proliferation of office fax machines, and high prices --initially $35 per 10-page document--sank the service. ZapMail lost $350 million by the...
